A message from Revd David Jones

Blessed are the peacemakers.

I write this on the day that Donald Trump arrives in Israel as hostages are released. A day when the world waits in hope of a lasting peace in the Middle East.

I write not knowing what conversation took place but knowing that it cannot have been easy. Also knowing that, no matter what our view of Donald Trump, he has been instrumental in bringing this peace. Many world leaders seek to prove their power and thankfully, this time, it was by resisting military force.

But how can we be instrumental in bringing about peace when our influence is so small?

Peace is both smaller than large scale war and also so much more.

Peace maybe within our relationships, in our homes and families, with neighbours, work colleagues or in many other encounters. We can seek to approach difference or disagreement peacefully, or we can seek to be confrontational. We can choose diplomacy or we can use force, we can act in love or we can react with hate.

A lack of peace is not only a national or international problem. We can all suffer as a result of a lack of peace.

We can all be peacemakers through our own choices.

Then there is the sense of inner peace. A peace that is unlikely to be achieved if we constantly put ourselves in competition with others. A peace that is possible when we seek to build up others and put others ahead of ourselves.

May you come to know the peace that passes all understanding.

Blessings
Dave

Artificial Intelligence – Good or Bad?

The news is full of stories about Artificial Intelligence (AI). No wonder, it is a relatively new field of technology that is growing at an ever-increasing rate. But, is it good or is it bad?

On the one hand we hear about its potential to take the boredom out of repetitive tasks: medical AI can detect diseases from patient data that even experienced doctors might miss; new drugs can be designed using AI; it can be used to personalise education and training to suit the individual student; it may soon be driving our cars for us.....the list grows every day. On the other hand, people are worried about being put out of work by computers and creative artists are worried about the copyright issues of AI using their data. Also the same AI that designs a new drug can also design a more lethal biological weapon and AI can control autonomous weapons. Relying more and more on AI and the 'advice' it gives us risks losing our individuality – who is making the decision? – and we might even lose the ability to function at all without it. There are other ethical issues too – if the car driven by AI is involved in an accident who is at fault? Is it the computer programmer, the car manufacturer, the driver, the computer, or who?

There is no doubt that AI will continue to grow at an enormous rate and the number of difficult ethical issues will also grow. We need to be finding ways of addressing these issues so AI can become a benefactor for humanity and not a curse.

There is another aspect of AI that should give cause for concern. AI needs vast amounts of data which it uses to find patterns, enabling it to make predictions about similar situations. AI computers are trained by being fed all this data over weeks and months. This requires vast numbers of computers in large factories: there is one in China that occupies 250 acres. The power consumption of all these computers is vast too, measured in gigawatts, enough to power thousands of households. And that power generates a lot of heat, which has to be removed using huge quantities of water in a world where there are increasing concerns about the amount of water available to supply our needs and the needs of the agriculture that feeds us. All this generates extra challenges as the world attempts to respond to the difficulties of climate change.

So next time you are tempted to ask ChatGPT or your favourite bot to do something for you, think about the impact on the climate and worry that you risk losing the ability to think for yourself and even judging whether the answer AI feeds you with is sensible.

Words and Actions

JESUS HAD MANY FRIENDS - AND HE OFTEN WENT WALKING WITH THEM.

ONCE, ON A JOURNEY, JESUS CALLED AT THE HOME OF MARTHA AND MARY

MARTHA WAS VERY PLEASED TO MEET WITH JESUS, AND SHE MADE HIM WELCOME

MARY WAS VERY EXCITED TOO AND WANTED TO LISTEN TO EVERYTHING JESUS HAD TO SAY

BUT MARTHA, WAS NOT VERY IMPRESSED WITH MARY! SHE THOUGHT HER SISTER SHOULD BE HARD AT WORK, NOT SITTING AROUND - JUST LISTENING

LORD, DON'T YOU CARE THAT MARY HAS LEFT ME TO DO ALL THE WORK BY MYSELF?!

MARTHA, YOU ARE WORRIED AND TROUBLED OVER SO MANY THINGS

JESUS TOLD MARTHA THAT THERE ARE FAR MORE IMPORTANT THINGS IN LIFE THAN JUST FUSSING OVER A CLEAN HOUSE!

PERHAPS THE MOST IMPORTANT THING WE CAN LEARN, LIKE MARTHA, IS TO MAKE TIME TO LISTEN TO JESUS.

St Andrew and football

‘Some people think football is a matter of life and death. I don't like that attitude. I can assure them it is much more serious than that’ (Bill Shankley). When you replace the word ‘football’ with ‘mission’, this quote still has something to say! The apostle Andrew (we remember him on 30th November) demonstrates what the mission of the Church is all about (cf John 1:35-42). It's not unlike following your favourite football team!

When we support a football team, we make sure that we know all about them! When Andrew and his friend heard about Jesus, they wanted to find out more: ‘Look, the Lamb of God.’ (John the Baptist, v35). The first stage of mission is finding out more about Jesus, the One who enables us to be friends of God through His death and resurrection.

Secondly, when supporting a football team, we will spend time watching their games. Andrew asked, ‘where are you staying?’ and Jesus replied, ‘Come and you will see’ (v39). Andrew spent the rest of the day talking and listening to Jesus. As a result of this time, he had something to share. How much time do we spend with Jesus, reading His word and praying?

When our team wins, we want to share the good news! After meeting Jesus, Andrew's first action was to tell his brother Peter: ‘We have found the Messiah’ (that is, the Christ)’ (v41). Are we willing to tell others about Him too? Sharing with family and close friends can sometimes be harder than talking with strangers. However, we don't need to follow a football team to engage in mission. It's all about being excited to share Jesus with those we meet day by day.

‘Mission is seeing what God is doing and joining in’ (Rowan Williams).

Winterbourne Mothers Union.

We have returned from our summer break to our opening service and a lively discussion to prepare next year's programme.

Sue R was able to attend Mary Summers Day (our founder) gathering in August and Joan W has been busy with our bank contacts, both gave an update during the meeting. A group of us took part in The Wave of Prayer at St Michaels Church on 9th September. This is an International event celebrated by Mother's Union at 11 am around the whole world. Sue continues to support prison teas for visitors to Ashfield Prison and Rhoda continues with her role at Bristol Children's Hospital. Other members support by supplying teabags or biscuits. We have a number of new members and we always welcome more. These people will become members fully in January.

In October we heard all about the work of Paul's Place

The remaining meetings of the year are varied:

November 17th John and Poppy Spens return to update us on The Brickworks in South Sudan.

December 15th - Our Christmas service and celebration .
This year we will have a wonderful Ukelele group to perform and hopefully lead us in a few sing-alongs for Christmas.

All meetings are at St Michael's Community Centre at 2pm apart from Christmas at 2.30pm and all are very welcome to come and join us at any time.

Sue Reynolds.

Salem Diary

We were very pleased with the response we had to our Heritage Open Day. It was a joy to welcome members of the local community into the church. We are now making plans to have a year long celebration in 2 years time for our 240th anniversary.

November is the month for “Remembering”. November 1st is All Saints Day ; November 2nd is All Souls Day and November 9th is Remembrance Sunday. Whilst we at Salem do not have special services on November 1st or 2nd, but Remembrance Sunday is always marked. The service at 10.30 a.m will be led by the stewards and we remember, by name, those in Winterbourne and Watley’s End who lost their lives in the 2 World Wars.

Many churches in the local area have been involved in “Toilet Twinning”. At Salem we have been fund raising to twin our toilets and we now have sufficient funds to do this. It seems inconceivable that in so many parts of the world people do not have access to toilets or clean water.

Our regular activities continue

Wednesday November 5th is MACMILLAN COFFEE MORNING at 10 a .m. (Unfortunately this coffee morning last month had to be postponed)

Tuesday November 11th is Film afternoon at 2 p.m.

Saturday November 15th is Bacon Butty coffee morning at 10 a.m.

Tuesday November 24th is Women’s Fellowship at 2.30p.m.

ALL ARE VERY WELCOME to join in these activities

The Nicene Creed: The Person of the Holy Spirit

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son He is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

This month we are considering what the Nicene Creed says about the Holy Spirit.

'We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life': The original version of the Nicene Creed ended simply 'We believe in the Holy Spirit.' However, the phrase 'the Lord, the giver of life' was added to counter the teachings of Macedonius (Bishop of Constantinople), who viewed the Holy Spirit as a creation of the Son. The Holy Spirit is part of the Trinity who shapes us, according to Christ's image, through His fruit and gifts: 'the Spirit gives life...we are being transformed into His image with ever-increasing glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.' (2 Corinthians 3:6,18).

'who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son He is worshipped and glorified': In the late 6th century the Latin churches added the phrase 'and the Son' (the Filioque Clause), which was rejected by the Orthodox Churches. Augustine described the Spirit as 'love proceeding' from the Father and the Son, so we can know God: 'When the Advocate comes, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth who goes out from the Father, He will testify about me.' (John 15:26).

The Creed is clear that the Holy Spirit is due equal status and worship with the Father and the Son, as a distinct divine person: 'May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.' (2 Corinthians 13:14).

'He has spoken through the Prophets': Why does the Creed include this activity of the Spirit? It is not just referring to the OT prophets, but the whole of Scripture. He has inspired Scripture, so that we have God's word communicated by human writers: 'All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness' (2 Timothy 3:16). When we read the Bible, the Spirit enables us to hear what God is saying to us.

In what areas of life have you felt the Holy Spirit at work in you?

Reflecting Faith: Glory to God

For the last few months we've been looking at the way that church services are put together. After the beginning of the service, the next thing we do is think of all the many times we have not been as loving and forgiving to others - and indeed to ourselves - as we could have been. The story of the Prodigal son mirrors our situation and we know that, as we confess our sins, God holds us close and forgives us.

At this point, recognising how gracious and forgiving God is, we are asked to rise from our knees and stand together to give 'Glory to God', known in Latin as 'The Gloria'.

You will recognise those words from those spoken by the angels announcing the birth of Christ to the shepherds on the hills over Bethlehem: "Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth to people of good will" (Luke 2:15)

Traditionally this 'angelic hymn' has been sung and begins with praise to God the Father. It then asks for the mercy from God the Son, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world.

The final lines soar into the blinding mystery of the Trinity: 'Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father'. Because it is so full of joy it is not included in worship during Advent and Lent.

This hymn dates back to the third century of the Church. Tradition holds that it was first composed as a prayer in the East, and then translated to Latin by Saint Hilary of Poitiers around the year 360.

Because this hymn is so special, over the years there have been limitations on who was allowed to sing or recite it. At first it was only bishops and then in the 11th century priests were allowed to do so.

Now we all sing or say it together. That means we take our place in our Christian heritage alongside those angels singing or saying it each week. What a privilege!

This month

Next time you go to a Sunday church service think about those angels as you stand to say or sing 'The Gloria'. Can you feel their wings alongside you?

St Michael's C of E Primary School

Learn • Care • Enjoy

On Friday 3rd October, all year groups from Years 1 to 6 gathered excitedly to walk to St Michael's Church. With enthusiasm bubbling in the air, our 150-strong snake of children meandered through the village, joyfully parading down Church Lane. Surprisingly, the rain held off, allowing us to enjoy our walk and arrive dry for our harvest celebrations.

Upon arriving at the church, the atmosphere buzzed with anticipation as Year 3 and Year 4 prepared to take the lead in our wonderful harvest service. Each child spoke clearly performing their well-rehearsed lines. They enjoyed showcasing their beautiful artwork taking this up and down the aisles so all could see their efforts. A small group performed an entertaining mini drama that delighted the audience as they re-told the parable of the 'Sower and the Seed'.

As always, the singing in the church was wonderful. The children's voices filled the church with warmth and joy, with a firm favourite being 'Michaelmas Daisies'. The spirited rendition, whilst slightly out of sync with the backing track, resonated throughout the church and brought smiles to the faces of all present, the children clearly enjoying their performance.

As part of our harvest festival, we were fortunate to deliver our generous harvest donations to Resound Church on Blackhorse Road, Mangotsfield. This local church works diligently to collect vital supplies for the North Bristol and South Gloucestershire Foodbank, supported by the Trussell Trust network. Knowing our contributions would support those in need added a sense of purpose to our celebration.

The service served as a poignant reminder of gratitude, inviting each of us to reflect on what we have to be thankful for and to consider those less fortunate in our community. Together, we celebrated not only the season's bounty but also the spirit of charity and community, reinforcing the values that bind us together as a school family.
